CHINESE FORCES REGAIN CONTROL OF TAIERCHWANG

Retreating Japanese Pounded By Artillery

HSUCHOW, APRIL 3.
THE LATEST MILITARY ADVICES STATE THAT CHINESE FORCES HAVE REGAINED COMPLETE CONTROL OF BOTH TAIERCHWANG AND HANCHWANG ON THE NORTHERN SECTOR OF THE TIENTSIN-PUKOW RAILWAY, AFTER HAVING DRIVEN OFF THE JAPANESE TROOPS IN A FURIOUS COUNTER-ATTACK LAST NIGHT.

PART OF THE JAPANESE TROOPS RETREATED TO YIHSHEN, BUT NO SOONER HAD THEY ARRIVED THERE THAN THE CHINESE FORCES FOLLOWED UP AND POUNDED THEM WITH THEIR ARTILLERY, INFLECTING CONSIDERABLE CASUALTIES.

THE REST OF THE JAPANESE FLED TO LANLINGCHEN, SITUATED EAST OF YIHSHEN AND NORTH OF TAIERCHWANG, WHERE THEY WERE BESIEGED BY THE PURSUING CHINESE FORCES.

AN ENTIRE JAPANESE DETACHMENT, INCLUDING THE COMMANDER, WAS ANNIHILATED.—(CENTRAL NEWS).

Hankow, April 2: Fighting on the northern Tientsin-Pukow Railway front has now developed into a sort of crazy pathwork, with large forces on each side operating behind the front lines of the other side, and various units more or less cut from the rest of their armies.

The Chinese claim further slight advances in the last 24 hours including the capture of two more villages.

A communique issued here late last night by Chinese military headquarters says, "Lianhsien, south of Tsohsien, nine miles north of Tenghsien, was recaptured by the Chinese yesterday afternoon. Chinese troops are attacking Hsiangchen, fifty miles south-west of Lingyi, with the latter city as the base.

"The Japanese forces in Hsiangchen have been reinforced by 2000 men and severe fighting is going on in Lungshanchen. Chinese troops are furiously attacking Talerchwang. A Chinese flying column has systematically cut Japanese communications north of Lingyi, thereby threatening the enemy rear in the vicinity.

"With the Chinese capture of Lianhsien, Japanese troops stationed in Tenghsien and Lincheng are now isolated. Japanese troops in Talerchwang, Yihshen and Yenchow fighting as separate units are being encircled by the Chinese forces."

The communique also claims further activity in the south Yangtze area including the surrounding of three sides of a thousand Japanese troops.

It declares, "The Japanese forces in the vicinity of Ishing, strategic city on the Nanking-Hangchow highway broke through the Chinese ordon and retired within the city walls of Ishing today. Chinese troops are pressing towards Ishing and Liyang.

"Severe fighting has also broken out in the vicinity of Changshing, 28 miles south of Ishing. One thousand Japanese troops in Hsuanchen, in Anhwei, near Wuhu, are at present surrounded by the Chinese on three sides," the communique adds.—(Reuter).

HANKOW JUBILATION
Hankow, April 3.
Chinese circles in Hankow received news of the recapture of Talerchwang and Hanchwang with jubilation, and believe that the Japanese attempt to capture Hsuehchow will be completely frustrated.—(Reuter).

The foreign oil companies in Mexico announce that they are filing a new application tomorrow against the Mexican Government's expropriation decree.

BIG MACAO EXCURSION CROWDS

In order to avoid taking on further passengers as the boat was already filled to capacity the s.s. Kinsan left for Macao yesterday morning ten minutes ahead of scheduled time.

Long before the boat was due to sail at 8.30 the wharf was packed with people desiring to make the trip. The crowd extended well into Connaught Road.

It was one of the largest excursion crowds seen for a long time.

The s.s. Kinsan did not arrive in Hong Kong till nearly midnight last night as she had left Macao an hour later, owing to low water.

KUOMINTANG CONGRESS ACTION LAUDED

New Epoch In China's "Renaissance"

Hankow, April 3.

The decisions of the Kuomintang Congress are hailed with unanimous approval here today.

The Chinese Communist organ, Hsin Shua Jih Pao, joining the Chinese Army and Kuomintang organs, declares that the decisions mark a new epoch in China's "renaissance."

The decisions which are splashed on the front pages of the newspapers, relegating war news to the inside pages, come as quite a surprise to a number of inhabitants of Hankow who did not even know that the Congress was taking place in this city.

The Congress was kept as close a secret as possible and no reports of meetings were allowed to be sent out of Hankow.

It is now revealed that the Congress sat for three days, and 500 delegates from all parts of the country attended.—(Reuter).

GERMAN LADY WAR WORKER TO LEAVE FOR HUNAN

Hankow, April 3.

A young German lady, Mrs. Attlie Frankel Wang, will soon leave here for Chengteh in Hunan to render services for Chinese wounded soldiers.

Mrs. Wang is "captain" of the Chinese Army Medical Corps and has had a notable record of service while working in the First Military Hospital here as a surgeon.

When she and her Chinese husband first came to Hankow from Shanghai last fall, the wounded soldiers were accommodated, owing to emergency conditions, in poorly provided houses in Wuchang, across the Yangtze River from here. There were not enough beds so that many of the soldiers had to sleep on the floor. Mrs. Wang immediately crossed the river to Hankow and bought with her own money beds for the cases that were most serious.

ORTHOPEDIC

Besides her routine work as a surgeon, Mrs. Wang taught the convalescing soldiers a kind of physical exercise known as orthopedic which helped them to regain their strength. She looked after her patients' hygienic requirements and taught and trained them in all kinds of sport, she being a good sportswoman herself, well versed especially in skating, horseback riding and fencing. She personally prescribed the diet for the wounded soldiers. She has 34 Chinese nurses working under her.

Her husband enlisted in the Chemical Unit of the Chinese Army after the outbreak of the war.—(Central News).

THE MILWAUKEE ROADSEPARATION OF WATER DEPARTMENT FINANCES FROM PUBLIC WORKSProposal That Users Of Water Should Pay Full Cost

A memorandum from the Financial Secretary, the Hon. Mr. S. Calne, has been issued by the Colonial Secretary's Office relative to the separation of the Water Department's finances from those of the Public Works in the Colony's accounts.

Remark that there was something to be said for charging fairly heavily for water since supplies were limited, the memorandum adds that many consumers were poor and no more than general compensation for past capital expenditure might be expected from revenue.

The memorandum says in part:—

Two things are involved in this, the setting up of a Water Department and the showing of Water Revenue separately in the Colony's Accounts. The latter can be done without establishing an entirely separate Water Department. The Economic Commission of 1934-35 recommended in paragraph 35 of their Report that "the Water supply of this Colony should be reorganized as a separate Municipal undertaking under Government control and should be kept entirely separate from the Public Works Department or any other Government Department." The question of municipalization of certain services is wide and difficult but it would appear possible to achieve the practical advantages of separation of the water finances without establishing the Water Department as a "municipal" undertaking.

At present no municipality exists and unless it is desired to place the Water undertaking under the supervision of the Urban Council, a separate Water Department must either be wholly independent or remain under the general control of the Public Works Department. Having regard to the great importance of water to the Colony it appears desirable that the final responsibility for it should rest with the Director of Public Works as the senior engineering officer in the Government Service. The Water Department should therefore be organized as a separate branch of the Public Works Department, the head of which would be responsible directly to the Director of Public Works.

I recommend:—

(1) The establishment of the Water Department as a Branch of the Public Works Department, the head of which would be remunerated on the scale of an Assistant Director of Public Works.

(2) The showing in future of Water Revenue and Expenditure in separate heads of the Colonial Estimates and the printing in those Estimates of a separate statement of the water accounts. General revenues would remain ultimately responsible for any deficit but ordinarily water revenue would exceed expenditure, representing a credit to general revenues to meet charges properly attributable to the Water Department as explained below (paragraphs 4-6). Expenditure on water would continue to be voted by the Legislative Council and subject to ordinary financial control as at present.

(3) It should be the aim to charge for water sufficient to pay all expenses including capital charges and charges met in the first place from general revenue but applicable to the Water Department; but whether revenue in excess of such cost should be collected by taxation is a matter of policy. There is something to be said for charging fairly heavily for water as the Colony's supplies are limited and water here is now very cheap. The consumers are however very poor and the expressed policy of, stated by the Economic Commission, has been that water should not be made a source of revenue. On balance it would appear that general revenues might expect some compensation for past capital expenditure made from revenue but no more.

(4) Any small surplus which may arise after meeting all the charges referred to above should be transferred to a Water Department Reserve Fund which would be available to meet (a) any deficit on the working of the Department in subsequent years; (b) capital renewals; (c) new capital expenditure. For the reasons explained in paragraph 5 (b), however, the building up of a large Reserve Fund of any kind is not desirable and if surpluses are found to occur regularly charges should be reduced.

It may be argued that as Repayment of past expenditure from revenue is over and done with there is no justification for making consumers pay for it now. On the other hand if the water undertaking had been financed from loan, as is the most usual practice, much higher charges would have had to be borne than are now proposed as interest would have been charged as well as a redemption contribution.

If general revenue is not made up by this means extra taxation will have to be raised in some other form and the community will be no better off on balance, while the prime object of making the consumer of water pay the full cost will not be attained. Virtually what is proposed is to treat the past expenditure as a loan without interest repayable on generous terms.

REPAYMENT OF PAST
EXPENDITURE FROM REVENUE

It may be argued that as this is over and done with there is no justification for making consumers pay for it now. On the other hand if the water undertaking had been financed from loan, as is the most usual practice, much higher charges would have had to be borne than are now proposed as interest would have been charged as well as a redemption contribution.

If general revenue is not made up by this means extra taxation will have to be raised in some other form and the community will be no better off on balance, while the prime object of making the consumer of water pay the full cost will not be attained. Virtually what is proposed is to treat the past expenditure as a loan without interest repayable on generous terms.

PROVISION FOR RENEWALS

The Economic Commission expressed the view that provision for depreciation of works financed from revenue ought not to be included in maintenance charges to be debited against water revenue (Report, paragraphs 31-32); part of their objection being that such depreciation provision was not actually paid into any Depreciation or Renewal Fund.

In principle I think it is most desirable that there should be provision against the contingency of renewal of all works and equipment which may be expected to require renewal within a reasonable period of time, as is the common practice of other water undertakings and similar enterprises. The proper accounting procedure is to build up a Renewals Fund to which such expenditure can be charged.

In the absence of such a Fund the cost of renewal must be met by other means; e.g. renewal of the cross harbour pipe line is now necessary and will have to be met from loan. There is, however, a departure from orthodox principle—the military contribution. If annual contributions were made to a Renewals Fund and revenue raised from water charges to cover such contributions, military contribution of 20 per cent would have to be paid on such revenue.

The gross additional revenue to be collected would therefore be 25 per cent more than the Renewals contribution. On the other hand if renewals are in due course financed from loan the charges on such loan will, if present practice is maintained be deductible from the revenue assessable to military contribution. Unless and until there is a change in the military contribution system, therefore, the balance of advantage lies in making no current provision for renewals but financing them in due course by loan. Any "surplus" of revenue which may arise should, as already indicated, be regarded as available for renewals.

Certain other charges which ought in strictness to be borne by an independent water department, cost of postal facilities, share of audit expenses, water analysis by the Medical Department, Medical attention to state etc. are difficult to calculate exactly and they might be regarded as approximately offset by the free supply of water to Government offices, which it is proposed should continue.

SEPARATE METERING OF FLOORS

The main object of this proposal is to secure closer control of the consumption of water by enabling the responsibility to be placed on the "principal tenant" of each floor in Chinese tenement houses instead of the landlord. The former is in a better position to prevent waste and it is unfair that landlords should have to pay with no effective means of controlling what their tenants use.

It is proposed that separate meters should be installed on the request of landlords or in other cases where the Water Authority thinks it necessary. If made on the landlord's request he should pay the cost of installation.

It is not essential to separate metering that the water charges should be actually paid by the tenant instead of the landlord but it is an obvious further step to prevent waste. Where separate meters are installed therefore the charge should in future be on the tenant, but landlords should be required to make any necessary deposits if tenants failed to do so.

The change ought not, however, to be used to secure a monetary benefit to the landlord. In the main the adjustment between landlord and tenant must be left to ordinary economic forces but I would recommend that in announcing the change of incidence of charge Government should make it clear that landlords are expected to adjust their rents in consequence and that in the last resort Government may refuse to install separate meters for any landlord who is shown to have used the change solely to his own benefit.

MONTHLY ACCOUNTS

It has been recommended that in connection with the introduction of separate metering, accounts should be made payable monthly, which it is thought will assist the tenants, generally men of small means. From a Treasury point of view there is no advantage, because deposits can be made, as at present, to cover quarterly bills, while monthly accounts will entail an increased staff and eventually additional office accommodation.

The change goes with the introduction of separate metering and collection from tenants and I suggest that monthly accounts should only be introduced gradually as the system of metering of separate floors spreads. I.E. the Treasury, while having a right under the proposed new Ordinance to collect monthly, would continue to collect quarterly in cases where it was found more convenient.

WASTE PREVENTION SERVICE

It is recommended that systematic measures be taken to prevent waste of water. Proposals have already been submitted by the Water Engineer and an estimate of expenditure involved is appended (Appendix IV). This service should be initiated as soon as possible and should not await the adoption of other proposals in this Memorandum.

INTRODUCTION OF THE NEW REGIME

The installation of meters for separate floors will necessarily take some time. While it is very difficult to estimate, the Water Authority does not anticipate any immediate general demand for the installation of such meters when the cost is realized by landlords will ask for the installation of separate meters.

CHARGES FOR WATER

On the general principle that the users of water should pay the full cost of what they use the following bases of charge are proposed:

- (1) A general charge to be made to cover the cost of water supplied for "communal" purposes, i.e. hydrants, street cleaning, sewers, public buildings, free supplies to hospitals etc.
- (2) No free allowances.
- (3) Extra costs of supply to certain areas to be covered by additional charges.
- (4) Special rates to be charged for supplies to building contractors and shipping as at present.
- (5) All other water to be supplied at the standard rates.

As regards (1) the 2 per cent at present regarded as the proportion

Mr. Hin-shing Lo appeared for defendant, and on his application for bail, His Worship, after having scrutinised a medical certificate regarding the girl's condition which was stated to be serious granted a cash bail of $1,000.

REGISTRY MARRIAGES

Two Chinese couples were married at the Registry, Supreme Court, yesterday.

Mr. Chang Ping-hui, a teacher, was married to Miss Teng Kwai-fong, of No. 96, Caine Road and Miss Yeung Wan-wa, of No. 28, Kai Yan Road, became the bride of Mr. Shum Yam-yip, of No. 173, Des Voeux Road West.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The forthcoming marriage of Mr. Peter Morrison, of No. 354 The Peak, and Miss Mary Adelaide Battery, of No. 10, Albion Terrace, Kowloon Docks, is announced.

of the rates applicable to water might reasonably be regarded as a proper charge for general supply. It is true that this 2 per cent yields more than the actual cost of the "communal" supplies as defined above and that it has been connected with the free allowances so that, when those allowances are abolished those consumers (principally office blocks and well-to-do private residents) who have in the past got all their water within their free allowances and paid nothing for excess consumption may not like having to pay in future at the standard rate for what they consume as well as continuing to pay the 2 per cent.

But there are many diverse considerations on the other side. (These are outlined in the memorandum).

(The charges which should be met by the revenue of the Water Department are then outlined).

RECOMMENDATIONS

The following scale of charges is therefore recommended. It will necessarily be subject to review after the new regime has been in operation for sufficient time to estimate possible results:—

- (a) 2 per cent on the assessment valuation to cover general charges.
- (b) Unit charge of 30 cents per thousand gallons.
- (c) Upper levels and Peak-Hill districts to pay 40 cents and 50 cents respectively per thousand gallons.
- (d) Supplies to building contractors and shipping to be charged for at $1 per thousand gallons as at present.
- (e) Meter rentals as at present.

Sir,—A Chinese Art Exhibition is being held in the China Emporium up to April 8.

This Exhibition is designed to raise funds for the upkeep of the First Aid Hospital recently established in Canton.

China is now in the throes of a catastrophe that is unparalleled in her history. Thousands of her civilians have been massacred and an equal number lacerated in consequence of the ruthless bombing on the part of the Japanese.

Thousands upon thousands of her wounded soldiers receive no medical care and attention. Their pangs and sufferings are indescribable. Therefore we who are surviving deem it our sacred duty to relieve those who are directly the victims of the present war.

To our hospital the wounded soldiers and civilians may come for medical treatment, and the services rendered are gratuitous; the patients are freely provided not only with quarters, but also with board.

It will be seen that the monthly expenditure is enormous. Accordingly we beg to appeal to you who believe in humanity and charity, the great virtues upheld by civilized mankind, to contribute to this fund. Any free donations or purchase of the objects of art will be greatly appreciated. Your kind and generous act will confer untold blessings upon those who receive it. We thank you on behalf of the hospital and of the people of the entire nation.

ANOTHER POINT OF VIEW

Sir,—I have read with interest the discussions in your valued paper re the vexed question of the "Service Man and the Civilian" in Hong Kong, but I venture to suggest that "Bee" and "Naval Petty Officer" are not the people to whom this subject really applies.

The Chief and Petty Officer of the China Fleet has ample opportunity to meet the civilian. His uniform is an "open sesame" to many places (hotels, messes, and dance floors) whereas in the case of "three rows of tape" it is only the beer halls of Wanchai and the China Fleet Club that must accommodate us.

Personally, I think you would have got to the root of this subject much better, if you had your civilian friend meet "Boker I" or "Able Seaman."

"A Naval Petty Officer" in your issue of the March 31 says that the facilities for servicemen do exist. Will he, through the medium of your columns, kindly tell us where they exist for one and all? I imagine he will tell us the dances at the "S. and S." "S.H. and S.I." and at the Hotel Cecil, but here again the "Brass Button" seems to "knock 'em cold."

If we had more Cheero Clubs in Hong Kong and hundreds more helpers like they have there then I am sure we unformed servicemen would not be left outside the door.

MAGISTRATE PROSECUTES CAR DRIVER

Danger To Public

Chan 'Chong, driver of car No. 52, appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday on a summons for driving in a manner dangerous to the public.

Complainant in the case was Mr. K. M. A. Barnett, the Magistrate, who stated that about 2.30 p.m. on February 28 he had just descended from a bus at the junction of Nathan and Saigon Roads when he noticed a small car coming from the direction of Tsimshatsui which, he estimated, was going at an excessive speed.

The car passed a line of four or five buses and drew level with the first bus. Defendant then accelerated to pass that bus at a speed which witness said was between 30 to 35 miles per hour.

Defendant then swung his car out but as another car was coming in the opposite direction he swung back to his proper side of the road and, in doing so, almost hit a Chinese woman who was crossing the road.

Defendant stated that he wished to call Mr. Lock, of the P.W.D., who was in the car at the time, to give evidence, and the case was adjourned till Friday.

HUNGARIAN CHARGED WITH FALSE PRETENCES

Rudolf Mamlock, alias Rudolf Mamlock-Montague, 23, Hungarian, was charged before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday with obtaining goods and money under false pretences.

Det-Insp. J. O'Donovan stated that the accused came to the Colony some six months ago, after having travelled extensively in Europe. He was for a time employed as an insurance salesman, but at the time of his arrest defendant was unemployed.

While in the Colony the defendant, it was alleged, had resided in a number of hotels, including the Kowloon and Chardhaven Hotels, where he left outstanding accounts in both hotels. In the latter he left some of his luggage.

Defendant then went to Canton, and returned on March 31 by train, without any money. He was arrested the following day and charged.

Prior to March 31 the police had received complaints from various tradesmen.

Defendant admitted the charges. It was stated that on February 7 defendant went to a Japanese curio dealer, where he bought a smoking outfit, valued at $11. Defendant signed a cheque for $23.

and received $14 back in cash from the complainant.

On March 3 defendant went to the Central Tailors, 341 Nathan Road, ordered two suits valued at $12. The tailor asked him for a deposit whereupon he produced a cheque for $50, getting $3 change. Complainant went to the bank and the cheque was dishonoured. Mamlock returned the next day to try on the suits, but when challenged by the tailor said he would make good the cheque. He failed to come back.

Inspector O'Donovan applied for a remand till Monday, on the grounds that the police would like to make enquiries regarding the Aliens Ordinance.

His Worship granted the request.

OPIUM CASE IN KOWLOON

The case against Li Ah-sai, steersman aboard the R.F.A. War Parthia who was charged with possession of prepared opium was continued before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday.

Defendant had stated in evidence at the previous hearing that the opium found on his person was government opium and that he had purchased it from government opium shops. The quantity was 7.84 taels, which was 2.84 taels in excess of what was allowed by the law for one person.

Defendant took the police on Friday to shops in No. 353 Queen's Road West, and No. 40 Wing Lok

TRAIN PASSENGER ROBBED

Ho 'Ching, 26, of No. 389 Reclamation Street, was charged before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday with larceny of a wallet containing $56 from a train passenger at the Kowloon terminus on Friday evening.

Defendant pleaded guilty and was sentenced to six months' hard labour. When released, he is to be placed under police supervision for two years.

Street, both of which were government branch opium shops.

His Worship imposed a fine of $20 and ordered the opium to be confiscated.

STRIKERS GO BACK TO WORK

Lock-Out At Book Factory Ends

It is understood that 591 workers employed by the Chung Hwa Book Company at their workshop at Ma Tau Wai, who participated in the "sit-down" strike which began on March 11, have resumed work.

Some 800 persons are still refusing to return to work, however, following rejection by the management of certain demands made by them.

AWFUL TRUTH

Getting a divorce in Hollywood isn't always as easy as it sounds. Irene Dunne got one from Gary Grant for scenes in Columbia's new comedy, "The Awful Truth," showing today at the King's Theatre. It was an uncontested divorce, with a property settlement made in advance, yet the trial took seven days, and that didn't include the ten days required to build the courtroom.

The courtroom in "The Awful Truth" was modeled from a court in New Jersey, where the case is supposed to be heard. Evidence was taken, and the decision made time after time, so that the cameramen could move the cameras about and get it from all angles.

TALKS PROGRESSING SATISFACTORILY

Warm Springs, Georgia, April 1. President Franklin Roosevelt told pressmen today that discussions with Mexico over the seizure of United States oil fields seemed to be progressing very satisfactorily.

The President declined to elaborate this statement, but sources in close touch with the White House state that Mexico has assured the United States that small investors would be care for. Six Japanese planes swept over It is not revealed what is to happen regarding the larger investors, like oil financiers.

The American policy for these investors was said to be that they should receive only the amount invested, less depreciation. (Reuter)

THE GO GETTER

AT THE QUEEN'S

"The Go Getter" showing at the Queen's Theatre today. The episode that introduces the star, George Brent, is a reproduction of the tragic crash of the U. S. dirigible Macon into the Pacific Ocean a few years ago. Brent is a member of the crew as he goes down. He escapes with his life, but loses a leg, and therefore has to quit the Navy and get a job in civil life.

In this manner he meets up with Peter B. Kyne's famous old fiction character, Cappy Ricks, played by Charles Winninger. Cappy Andy of "Show Boat" both on the stage and the screen.

Brent also meets Cappy's daughter Margaret, who is played by the ethereal blonde star Anita Louise. The movie deals with the various tests through which old Cappy puts Brent, before giving his consent to a courtship, and how Brent successfully emerges from them.

Buaby Berkeley directed "The Go Getter" from a screen play devised by Delmer Daves from Peter B. Kyne's celebrated novel. Besides the three stars, the cast includes such excellent players as Henry O'Neill, John Eldredge, Joseph Crehan, Helen Lowell, Helen Valkis and Mary Treen.

WILD AND WOOLLY

Jane Withers has graduated to class of fancy ropers, having become an expert under the tutelage of cowpuncher Shorty Miller. In a part that requires a knowledge of roping, Jane scampers through her latest starring role in the Twentieth Century-Fox hit "Wild and Woolly," which has hit it run at the Alhambra Theatre today.

The character actor, Walter Brennan, famous for his "oldman" parts, is a comparatively young man in real life. Again in the role of an ancient, that of the grandfather of Jane Withers, in her latest Twentieth Century-Fox film, "Wild and Woolly," he surpasses his previous successes in characterizations of this type.

Directed by Alfred Werker, with John Stone as associate producer, the film concerns itself with the perennial effort of grandpop Brennan to defeat Churchill's candidate for sheriff the fireworks and shenanigans of the jubilee celebration, and the foiling by Jane and her friends of an attempted bank robbery.

Walter Brennan heads the cast which features Pauline Moore, Carl "Alfalfa" Switzer, Jack Searl, Berton Churchill, Douglas Fowey, Robert Wilcox and Douglas Scott.

ROTARY CLUB ADDRESS

Mr. James Smith of the Kowloon-Canton Railway will speak on "Locomotive Improvements" at Tuesday's weekly meeting of the Rotary Club at the Hong Kong Hotel.

Unity Of China

FINE CHINESE FILM PREVIEWED

VIVIDLY depicting the ruthless destruction and slaughter practised by the Japanese invaders, the plight of refugees deprived of their homes and livelihood, and, finally, the welding of the Chinese people into a united nation to repel the enemy, "Protect Our Home," a film presented by the Central Military Affairs Commission Political Department and produced by China Motion Picture Studio, Ltd., was previewed at the King's Theatre yesterday.

This picture tells of the life of a family driven to take shelter in the Yangtze Valley following the confiscation of their property when the Japanese occupied the Four North-Eastern Provinces in 1931. After six years, Liu Sun, head of the family, has succeeded in building up his little but happy home again.

But again the invaders ravish the countryside and in the subsequent happenings Liu is forced to shoot his drunken brother who has come under the influence of the enemy's secret service.

JOINS MILITIA

The story concludes with Liu taking up his rifle in the cause of his country and joining the militia-men to fight against the Japanese aggressors. Excellently produced and directed, "Protect Our Home" is a tribute to the skill and artistry of the Chinese film industry.

Bell and Howell equipment was used exclusively in the filming of this picture. The programme also included a number of news reels showing the havoc of war and how the people of China have rallied to the side of their leader in beating back the invader.

PICCARD KILLED

Brussels, April 2. Professor Renard Piccard, inventor of the new stratosphere aeroplane, was killed when the machine in which he was making a trial flight suddenly crashed when only 50 metres from the ground at Haeron aerodrome yesterday. (Transocean).

WAH YAN OLD BOYS ASSN

The Wah Yan Past Students' Association has selected Hotel Cecil as the scene of its informal Social Gathering, to be held on Saturday at 8 p.m.

The programme as announced includes games and Messrs. Ko Fook Sun, Tam Sik Poon, Kwan Man Wai, Joseph Ng, Yee Sau San and Cheng Choi will be responsible for the arrangements. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend. Prizes will be awarded to winners of competitions, and a large gathering is expected.

Details of the Association's Annual Sports have also been mapped out, with certain changes in the programme. Football will be dropped out. Tennis will not be a competitive event, but the courts of South China Athletic Association (Caroline Hill) will be open from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. for exhibition or friendly matches. In addition, races open to past students' associations in the Colony, S.C.A.A. members, Wah Yan present students, little visitors, thread and needle partners, etc. have been incorporated in the programme.

The Founder of the College, Mr. Peter Tsui or his colleague, Mr. Lim Hoy Lan will distribute the prizes. The Association's Membership Campaign has a great success, but the Council are still appealing for more past students to enlist.

SULTAN RIDES IN TANK

London, April 1. The Sultan of Muscat had his first ride in an army tank when he inspected the 2nd Battalion the Tank Corps at Aldershot today. He rode in a heavy tank, then later in light tanks which gave him the experience of travelling 40 miles an hour over very rough ground. (Reuter Bulletin).

AUSTRIAN BISHOPS ATTACKED

VATICAN RADIO BROADCAST

Vatican City, April 1. Formal repudiation of the action of the Austrian Bishops in advising their people to vote for the "annexation" was broadcast in German from the Vatican Radio Station to-night.

The statement said it was a breach of trust and loyalty for the Church to issue a statement on political matters.

Enemies of the Church may rejoice at the apparent breaking of the ranks, but all good Catholics will judge it at its true value. No faithful Catholic need feel obliged to support this judgment of the Austrian Bishops, the statement went on.

All men of goodwill would consider this attachment of the pastors to secular power as lacking in dignity and fidelity, the statement concluded.

The attack on the Austrian Bishops is unprecedented in recent history. (Reuter).

LONDON NAVAL TREATY

ESCALATOR CLAUSE INVOKED

London, April 1.

Formal announcement that they will invoke the escalator clause of the London Naval Treaty, and will build battleships above 35,000 tons, was made in letters from the British and American governments to the other signatories of the treaty, explaining that the action was due to the absence of assurances that Japan was not contemplating construction of battleships beyond the treaty limits.

The notes were practically identical, but whereas the British note only mentioned increasing the tonnage, the American note reserved the right to increase the gun calibre beyond 16 inches.

France also issued a note stating that she does not intend at present to invoke the escalator clause, so long as no other Continental European power departs from the treaty limits.

The next step will be a consultation to decide the extent of the escalation which, in accordance with the treaty, will be as low as the new circumstances seem to warrant. (Reuter)

DECLINE IN MERCHANT NAVY

WARNING SOUNDED BY LORD RUNCIMAN

SPEAKING at the annual meeting of the North of England Shipowners' Association at Newcastle-Upon-Tyne, Lord Runciman, president of the Association, said he thought that some people in high places were apt to forget that British shipping was the very essence of our Imperial strength, states The Times.

It was disturbing to realize that the number of British merchant ships had decreased by 1,000 since the War, and he wondered whether the seriousness of that was fully realized.

He was shocked at the amount of seaway that had to be made up. We could not continue a strong and vital nation unless we were prepared to place in the forefront of national important carriage by sea.

The depression had hit shipping so hard that in these anxious days we had to realize that we should not have the same volume of shipping available if some catastrophe were to burst on us again.

Lord Runciman praised the efforts of British shipowners in bringing about the tramp shipping voluntary co-operation scheme, and said it was incumbent on them to maintain the scheme since no industry could confer such universal benefits as shipping and its branches.

If Gossip We Must

(BY PRUDENCE)

Ever since those delightful fortnightly concerts at the Helena May were discontinued there has been a sort of blank in the musical life of the Colony—so it was an unexpected pleasure to have a musical afternoon of the good old style last Friday.

Mrs. Dunbar lent her charming house on May Road for the occasion and a number of music-lovers assembled to hear a short discourse on the music of Anton Dvorak given by that well-known teacher of music, Mr. Gerald Sydney, with vocal illustrations by Mrs. Sanger and Mrs. Gambler.

Mr. Sydney is the ideal lecturer for such an occasion, since he has an interesting way of giving all essential facts without wearying his listeners with dry details.

In his brief address he gave a very vivid picture of Dvorak, showing how his talent sprang to life in his early days, when he was merely a young music student at Prague with little money and no prospect of doing anything in life except follow in his father's footsteps, as an innkeeper in the little town of Kralup, in Bohemia.

Then Brahms heard some of his compositions and gave him his big chance, and after many vicissitudes his appointment to the Conservatory of Music in New York set the seal on a romantic career.

A résumé of his life work was pleasantly told by Mr. Gerald Sydney, who played some excerpts from the famous "New World Symphony" in brilliant style. He also gave a brief explanation of their inner meaning.

The soft green and pastel shades of Mrs. Dunbar's drawing-room made an ideal setting for music and proved to be exceptionally good acoustically, as it seemed to add a velvety quality to the voices of the singers (very different from the hard dry effect produced at the China Fleet Club). This was particularly noticeable in that exquisite little gem, "Songs My Mother Taught Me," which was given with much sympathy by Mrs. Sanger, who looked delightful in a dress of palest gray georgette, with a posy of mingled wine-red and yellow.

Very appealing, too, were three "Biblical Songs," sung by Mrs. Gambler. Her clear bright voice and delicate pianissimo were heard to advantage in "By the Waters of Babylon."

The guest of honour was Mrs. Southard, wife of the American Consul-General, who looked charming in a dark dress and most becoming furs.

Our hostess herself wore a beguiling dress of black, quaintly patterned with white and worn with a frilly vest of white lace.

After the concert we adjourned to discuss matters musical and otherwise, over dainty teas.

Mrs. Rocks was there, and Mrs. Gerald Sydney, I also noticed Mrs. Walton, lost in a discussion of famous present-day musicians with Mrs. Womack. Mrs. Walton knows quite a number of celebrities—Rudolf Friml, Mosewitsch, and others—and I was interested to hear from her that the popular violinist Daisy Kennedy is contemplating a tour of the Far East soon.

Mrs. Robertson looked remarkably nice in dark blue, with a tartan touch; and Mrs. Fred Tracy wore a wide-brimmed hat with a very attractive dress of flowery persuasion.

Mrs. Church was another I noticed. Her most amusing recitations were a great feature of the concert at the W.I.C. the other night. Mrs. Tinson looked very sweet in navy blue. She, by the way, is "tops" among our amateur actresses, and has scored many successes with the Philharmonic and the A.D.C. I remember her "Lady Bellaston" in "Tom Jones" as a big Philharmonic success a few years ago.

Among others, I noticed Mrs. G. Duclos, in black with a flash of emerald green. Mrs. Seth in smartly tailored checks and Miss Koch in attractive light gray with accessories of black.

This musical afternoon is the first of a series; the next will be on April 14 when the subject is to be the music of Beethoven and Mozart; then will come a third, on Schubert and Brahms.

OF INTEREST TO PARENTS

I heard an item of news a few days ago which might interest parents who have daughters at school in England and find holidays a problem!

It is sometimes difficult to know what to do with girls aged around fifteen and sixteen, and Mrs. Hampden Ross tells me she has discovered a perfectly delightful holiday home, where they have wonderful surroundings, any amount of tennis, riding, etc. and are marvellously looked after by Miss V. M. Grubb, (who is known to many local people, as she was for many years in North China).

Run in connection with Westonbirt School, she calls her holiday home the "Westonbirt House of Citizenship," and it is in one of the prettiest parts of Gloucestershire, quite near Tetbury.

CATHEDRAL SERMON

REV. H. W. BAINES PREACHES

The sermon at St. John's Cathedral yesterday, Passion Sunday, was preached by the Rev. H. W. Baines who said:—

It is notoriously difficult to describe and even more, to define human relationships. Often by attempting a definition of friendship or an analysis of love you take the bloom from it. But in the case of our relation to God through Christ it is necessary to take that risk because without it a whole wealth of wonder remains unexplored and we do not stretch out our hand to take what He in His love offers.

It is really that we are discussing. Real religion claims us as we enter this third fortnight of Lent where the conflict of Light with Darkness reaches its climax. We have seen how man for all his fine possibilities and glowing achievements is tainted by sinfulness and marred by sins. Sick and sinful mankind, like contemporary Europe, has gone to one medicine after another in search of health. Education, mental-analysis, physical and social development have all been tried, without final success. It is only when we acknowledge our need for forgiveness as the key to all other medicines that health has come in sight.

SO GOOD, SO SIMPLE

So far so good, and, it would appear, so simple. But the obstinate fact of man's malady remains although we know where to go for medicine. Why is that? The answer is that we have only got half-way to health when we know the name of the needed medicine. Jesus has given us a flawless example of what a man may be and has made His example come closer by the words of His teaching.

There is another reason why the teaching and life of Jesus exemplify forgiveness as they do, are not sufficient to bring us cure. It is this. Historically that example and teaching were not only unsuccessful but were defeated and ended in desertion and death.

ILLNESS EXPOSED

Jesus, the crucified, makes possible our cure by exposing our illness, our sin. He goes a step further by getting us to take our medicine, forgiveness. I remember during the epidemic of dysentery among children here in 1936 watching doctors, sisters and parents trying every means to get the sick children to drink the medicine on which life depended. It is the historical truth that we are brought to accept the healing of forgiveness in penitence by the fact and spectacle of Jesus' suffering and victorious death in a sense that is not true of His teaching and example.

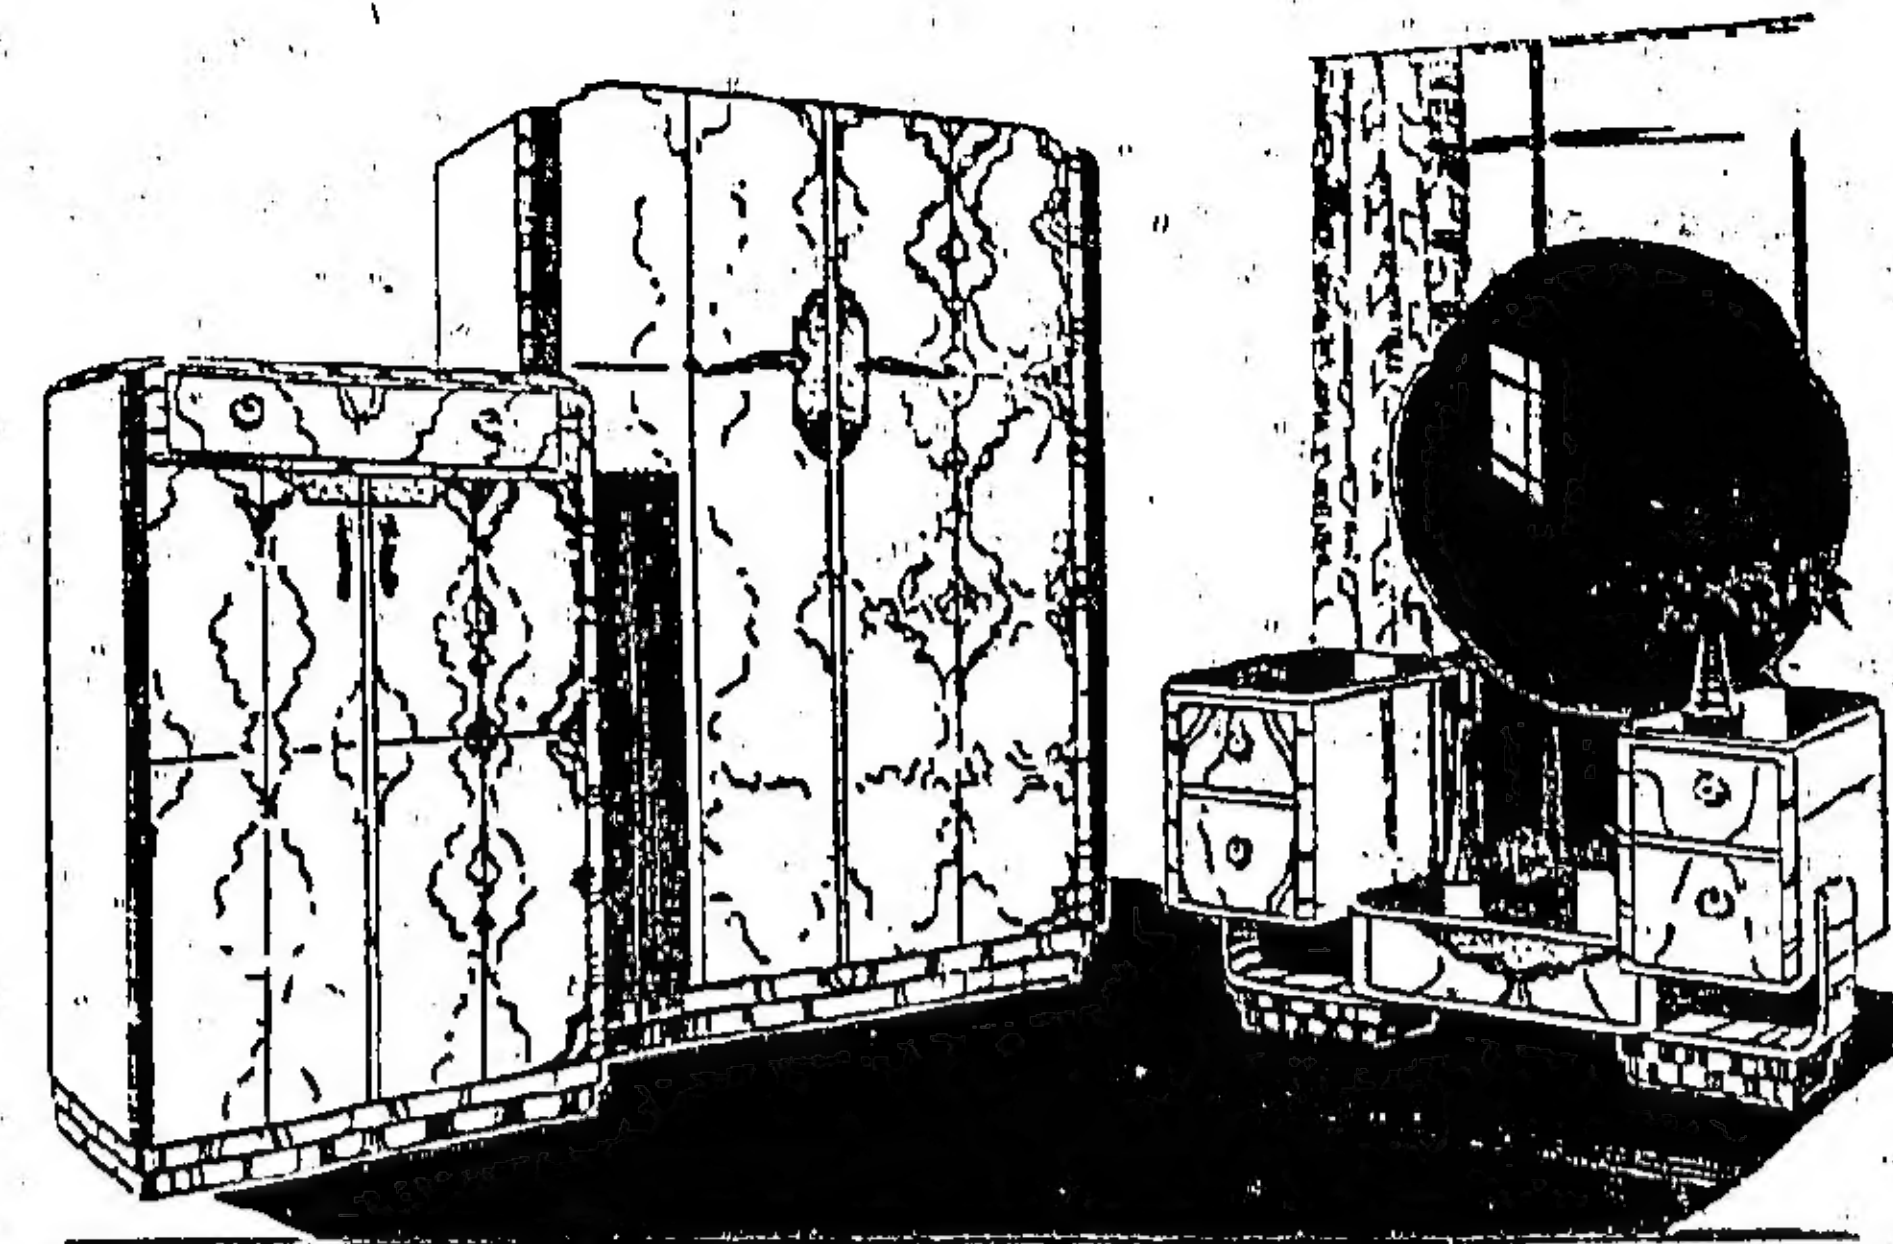

There is one last meaning of Jesus' death. You will find it simply stated in the hymn, "There is a green hill." There we sing "There was no other good enough to pay the price of sin." We revolt against any suggestion that God's justice had to be bought off by Christ's suffering; an implaceable Father satisfied with the torture of his beloved Son. Jesus was not offered on the altar of God's wrath. Remember that Jesus acted freely of his own purpose. To Him it was clear as it must be also to us that even when I have repented of my own past sin and have turned over a new leaf, even then there is something wrong not righted, a gap not bridged, a need not met.

"THERE IS A SACRIFICE"

The natural fitness of things which is the same as the unchanging reality of God's holiness is most truly met when an appropriate response of free love is made. Without Jesus we might never have thought of such a reckoning, but looking up at Jesus or walking beside Him like Simon we see One wholly akin to ourselves offering a flawless and sinless life in answer for the sins of us all. There is a sacrifice and a response wholly appropriate and adequate. With it you and I may associate ourselves so that in this wonderful way we are given salvation and a way of cure by Jesus: we are reconciled to reality, holy and righteous, by Him.

GUARANTEE AGAINST EVIL

Jesus, son of the living God, son of man, is our healer by His teaching and example, more deeply and lastingly so by His precious death; but finally and triumphantly He cures and upsets all our evil and ill by His resurrection. For Simon and we ourselves look in these closing days of the Passion not on death but on death bursting into life. It would be premature to do more than whisper the music of Easter except that we must never think of Good Friday without

REPORT ON BLACK-OUT PUBLIC'S CO-OPERATION IS APPRECIATED

"The public are to be congratulated on the great effort they made and the Committee look forward to perfect and complete satisfaction in future practices," states a communique issued by the Colonial Secretariat on Saturday in connection with the recent black out.

The communique goes on to state that it is felt that a report on the experiment would be of considerable interest to everyone and would act as an incentive to improve their efforts on future occasions. Col. Irwin, G.S.O.I., has already broadcast his impressions of the black out from observations from the air, whereas the following account is given by observers from points of vantage in the Colony.

Observations between 7 p.m. and 8 p.m., the first hour of the practice, showed that many people made a praiseworthy effort to carry out the object of the black-out. Many lights were visible in the early stages but most of these were extinguished before the hour of 8.

It was interesting to note that one house on the Peak employed blue lights as their method against light visibility, but this in itself was not effectual and further screening was found necessary before the commencement of the black out.

Experiments were made in screening lights in buildings with black cotton cloth shades extending eighteen inches below the lamp. They proved to be effective.

It was probably noticed that the Naval Yard was clearly outlined by reflected light, but alterations were made later which effectually killed the outline of the camber. This was due to the fact that the Naval Authorities were experimenting.

A visit to the town between 10 and 11 p.m. showed that the Chinese shopkeepers were conscientiously complying with the rules and carrying on their business behind closed blinds or screened doors and windows.

Several cases of individual lights being shown has been recorded, but this in itself is no stigma, as it shows that an effort has been made to carry on normal routine where last time the least line of resistance was taken and people availed themselves of the use of hotels, restaurants, etc.

If inhabitants carry on in this same way, redoubling their present efforts, their adherence to all rules and regulations cannot fail to produce a perfect example of what

CHIANG KAI-SHEK—DICTATOR

Whatever may be said against the dictatorship form of government, it is, perhaps, the most effective in abnormal times, such for instance, as war. At such times, the truth of the old adage "too many cooks spoil the soup," is often strikingly demonstrated. What is needed then is a strong and clever brain to direct affairs without fear of having his decisions vetoed or hampered by a Cabinet, because there is the definite goal of victory in view.

In a democracy the fighting forces are controlled by ministers far removed from the scene of hostilities with the result that "misunderstandings" arise which often lead to grave consequences. The experience of Great Britain in the last war is a case in point. The thesis is, of course, a moot one and its disadvantages are patent, but its effectiveness in certain circumstances cannot be doubted. It is essential, for one thing, that the dictator should be an administrative as well as military genius. That is why, one presumes, changes to this effect have been made in three great countries recently.

In Germany Herr Adolf Hitler is supreme war lord; in Italy Mussolini was recently appointed Marshal of the Italian Empire. China has now, very wisely, decided to follow the good example. But there is a big difference between Hitler and Mussolini on the one side and Chiang Kai-shek on the other.

Both the European dictators are, admittedly, strong men. Their strength of character and purpose are beyond dispute, but how they would lead armies to victory is another question altogether. Generalship is a science acquired only by profound technical study and wide practical experience. So far as is known, both Mussolini's and Hitler's eminence in this direction attained

THE WORLD'S DEBT TO SPORT

Sunday, April 3, 1938

The British soldier's ability on the sports field is well known, and since the beginning of the present century the popularity of sport in the Army has increased by leaps and bounds until today it occupies almost as important a place in the curriculum of military training as does the actual "Training for War" itself.

Very many years ago the authorities realised that whilst a man could be kept physically fit by means of the ordinary Army Drill, route marches and physical training, another method was required to keep a man mentally fit.

That elusive "other method" had not only helped to fill up the soldier's leisure hours, but it had to hold his interest and help to develop quick thinking and self-reliance. It had also to inculcate that team spirit and "one for all—all for one" ideal which together are so valuable, indeed essential, to a fighting body.

Lastly it had to help one in times of stress to retain that sense of proportion without which a man loses half his value, whether it be in the heat of battle or the heat of a keenly contested game.

It did not take the authorities very long to realise that the much sought after key to the problem was the encouragement of sports and organised games, and since that realisation, sport in the Army has never looked back.

Although it was probably not appreciated at the time, this introduction of games into the training schemes of a fighting service satisfied another requirement. In an army utilised largely for policing a great Empire it is essential that the soldiers should have a common ground on which to meet the inhabitants of the country in which they are stationed. Sports and games provided this common meeting ground.

The world's love of sport and a good sportsman are too well known to need stressing here and it is his prowess, act and love of sport, that has enabled the British soldier to get on so well with the nationals of most other countries in the world.

His training has fitted him not only to wage war against his enemies but also to play games with them. Where the enemy have been too backward he has set to work to teach them to play the game both in letter and in spirit and as teams and individuals.

That all this has been for the good of the world in general and the Empire in particular has been proved so often as to place it beyond dispute.

During the World War the British Military authorities did not hesitate to allow prisoners of war to turn out teams to compete in friendly rivalry against their captors, and it was no uncommon sight to witness captives and guards indulging in a game of football or hockey or other field game.

During those dark days in Ireland, when so many British troops were stationed in that country they entered teams in the many civilian sporting leagues and competed against civilian teams from all over the country. It is true that many of the military teams were conveyed to the rendezvous in protected vehicles accompanied by escorts, but this was largely because it was so difficult to distinguish friend from foe. The games themselves justified their playing by the fact that the very act of playing them created good feeling on both sides and serious disturbances during the matches were comparatively rare.

The same story can be told of the Army of Occupation on the Rhine, and even today, in places like Khartoum, El-Obeid and Atbara, British troops can be seen enjoying a sternly contested game against cool-black, woolly-haired Sudanese and Nubians playing in their bare feet. Even in Palestine today the troops play against both Jew and Arab.

It may truly be said that the soldier is a "Missionary of Sport" and his contributions on the sports field towards a better understanding between nations have been felt all over the world. Many other nations are now training their armies on similar lines.

But what a pity Japan has not followed the same lead!

If she had, much of the pillaging, looting and rape that have characterised her operations in China would never have taken place. The Japanese soldier would have been given that sense of proportion he at present lacks and which is so essential to the fighting man. Those absurd demands for "gentle bows," doffing of hats and other servile salutations so dear to the distorted mind would probably never have been made.

Perhaps most important of all, Japan would have been spared the humiliation of hearing the world say: "There is still an army which has not yet mastered the most elementary commandment of the Soldier Sportsman's Catechism—'Be Modest in Victory—Be Generous in Defeat.'"

MR. HOOVER AND NEXT ELECTION

RECENT SPEECH A MANOEUVRE?

Washington, April 3.
In a formal statement to the Press conference today, Mr. Cordell Hull said that Mr. Hoover's speech on March 31, which emphasised the profound need for a programme of economic appeasement, was now being carried forward by the American Government and that there is a powerful argument in favour of redoubting the efforts to conclude reciprocal trade treaties.

Mr. Hoover's speech is frankly regarded here as a political manoeuvre and members of the New Deal are convinced that the ex-President hopes to receive Republican support at the nomination in 1940.—(Reuter).

That is borne out by every phase of his remarkable life during the past two decades—not merely by the brilliance of his leadership during the past eight months. This leadership is no mere flash in the pan. It is the fruit of the love of a man who has devoted his entire life to the service of his people. Inspired by the Divine hand in answer to his daily prayers, the Generalissimo has gone from strength to strength. The Chinese people have now thought fit to place in him their entire destiny. It is a tremendous responsibility, but they could not have done better. They can, indeed, be thankful that the country has such a man on whom to rely in the hour of crisis.

The new move can and will only have the effect of stiffening the resistance by coordination of the defence system, the co-operation of all the provincial governments and the untiring loyalty and sacrifice of the entire Chinese people.

If there is any living man today who is able to lead China to victory it is Chiang Kai-shek.

WEEKLY MUSICAL REVIEW

BY "ALLEGRO MODERATO"

We shall be a little ambitious this time. We shall dwell a little on the art of vocal production, yes, very little.....

It is a common fallacy that any one who can produce sounds, more or less pleasant, can sing. No, no! To be able to sing well, takes more, than that. It takes years and years of painstaking, grueling, heart-breaking, nerve-rendering practice—yes, nerve-rendering to oneself, to one's "maestro" and to those who should happen so to be within the three-mile radius, of ear-shot.

The essential requirement of singing, is first and foremost—a voice (believe it or not!). The vocal chords must be disposed in just such a manner and the hyoglossus, or singing muscles, developed to a certain degree. It is the job of the maestro to whip them into shape, and when we say whip, we do not mean anything else. A trainer of animals could not drive his "pupils" any harder than a singing teacher. He requires, may exact, a lot. The tone should be sustained, not wobbly, sweet not harsh, not too much in the throat, nor too much in the nose. This must be done, that—never! Or as he says it, "Nevaire!" We said we should dwell briefly on the subject, which requires volumes and volumes to really do justice to. Let us proceed!

Hong Kong is graced by many good singers and we hope that the public will remember not to ask too much of them, or expect that they appear too frequently and sadly enough—just for thanks. We are not exaggerating when we say that the singer, if he or she is a singer at all, has to devote, as above-mentioned, a lot of time and sacrifice, a lot to be able to just merit your plaudits. So be a little kinder to them—more considerate, we should say! The same of course, applies to all other artists.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

We spent a delightful evening at the Kowloon Union Church on the 30th. The occasion was a Concert given by the Fellowship and Social Club, attached to the Church. The programme reads as follows:

PART I

1. Pianoforte Solo "The Second Arabesque" Debussy; (E. O'Neill Shaw).

Considering the poor piano he had to play on we shall award him  two stars.

2. Eva Turner came along and thrilled us with (a) "Singing to you" by Haydn Wood and (b) "Shepherd Thy Demagogue Vary".....H. Lane Wilson. She gets  for her efforts.

3. Gaston d'Aquino gave us something out of the ordinary (for him), "Onaway, Awake!" from Longfellow's Hawatha to the Setting of Colebridge Taylor.....

4. Winnie Cox merits  for her eloquently offering, Alfred Noyes' "The Highway Man".....If we remember aright she had to appear again, with an encore.

5. Helen Lockhart's rendition of "I know of two bright eyes".....Clutson, deserves ***.

6. Bob Henderson should take  for his "The Fact is" He had on the same costume he had on for "Jack and the Beanstalk" in which he played "Dizzy".

7. W. C. Knight d'd justice to (a) The Vagabond and (b) Bright is the ring of Words both by R. Vaughan Williams.....

8. This is the first time we have heard Helen Lockhart and Gaston d'Aquino tackle "Opera" their concerted effort (Home to our mountains from "Il Trovatore" by Verdi) deserve . For an initial effort they can pass. More practice, please!

THE SECOND HALF

"My Ships".....by Barrett, sung by Helen Lockhart.....

9. A Selection from "Three Men in the Boat" ("How the elderly man of the family hangs up a picture") by Jerome K. Jerome, done by Winnie Cox.....

Bob Henderson took an extra bow for his number in this half.....

The duet "Ah Cruel 'Til' Now," from Mozart's "Nozze di Figaro," by Eva Turner and W. C. Knight, was better done the last time we heard the "duo" together.....

The Comedy to end the evening's programme, Stanley Houghton's "The Dear Departed" showed the histrionic gifts of Agnes Leib (Mrs. Slater), Winnie Ingram (Victoria Slater), Leonard Starbuck (Henry Slater), Olive Starbuck (Mrs. Jordan), T. R. Ingram (Ben Jordan).

CHINA TRADE IN WAR CONDITIONS

Returns For Last Year

Changes in the volume and character of Chinese foreign trade in war conditions are shown in the returns for the whole of 1937, which have now been received in England, states the Manchester Guardian.

Both imports and exports were greater than for many years past. Total imports into China amounted to 953,000,000 Shanghai dollars, compared with $942,000,000 and $919,000,000 in the two preceding years.

Total exports from China, which had already expanded from $576,000,000 in 1935 to $706,000,000 in 1936, were as much as $838,000,000 in 1937.

But the experience both in imports and exports in the past five months of 1937 was very different from that of the earlier months of the year. The total turnover from January to July, 1937, was $1,302,000,000, against $930,000,000 in the corresponding period of 1936.

Between August and December, 1937 (the first five months of the war), the total was $490,000,000, against $721,000,000 in the same months of 1936.

All countries trading with China have lost much trade through the war. In most cases the value of imports into and exports from China in the first five months of the war, August to December, 1937, compared with the last five months of peace, March to July, 1937, has been fully halved.

JAPAN LOSES

Japan has lost more trade than any other large country, although the Japanese authorities have endeavoured strenuously to extend the trade relations between their motherland and the occupied territories of the Chinese Republic.

In the first five months of the war China's imports from Japan declined, compared with the last five months of peace, by about 85 per cent. to $13,746,000, while Chinese exports to Japan declined by nearly three-quarters, to $12,760,000.

Japan's favourable balance in its trade with China was thus cut down from $80,230,000 in the five months immediately preceding the war to merely $986,000 in the first five months of the war.

The United Kingdom's trade with China has been comparatively well maintained since the beginning of the Chinese-Japanese war. Nevertheless the favourable balance of 23,785,000 in the last five peace months was transformed into an unfavourable balance of $1,210,000 in the first five months of the war.

CUSTOMS REVENUE

The trend shown by China's trade figures is also reflected in the country's Customs revenue for 1937, official figures of which were published by the Inspector General of Chinese Maritime Customs a few days ago.

In the whole of 1937 China's Customs revenue reached $32,900,000, against $324,830,000 in the preceding year. More than three-quarters of the 1937 revenue, however, was collected in the first seven months of the year.

This revenue is the security for various issues of Chinese bonds. In 1937 income was sufficient to cover all services owing to the large trade during the first months of the year.

FAR EAST HEALTH

The health bulletin of Eastern ports for the week ending March 28 states:—

WOOD STEALERS GO TO PRISON

Sentence of three months' imprisonment was passed by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Magistracy yesterday on Li On, 23, and Ho Fuk, 28, for unlawful possession of tree wood valued at $265.

G. R. Leib (Abel Merryweather)

..... This should deserve . There were some delightful moments and the players showed such naturalness, which must be the outcome of talent, good production, and team work.

Mr. O'Neill saw d'd good work as accompanist for which we shall give him three stars and Mr. J. S. Snook, who was M.C., also three stars!

RADIO

We enjoyed very much the weekend programme (Sunday 27th March) A.A. Barton (Bartone) accompanied by A. T. Lay (Pianoforte) who gave two delightful little solos. Mr. Barton is showing progress. The Studio Orchestra, under Lindsay A. Lafford, was first class..... more of this please! Elizabeth Donaldson (Contralto) shows promise. We liked her programme of French Songs.

We wonder why it is that Z.B.V. do not put on records of Toti dal Monte or Masini. These two have a following of admirers here. By the same token, we do not hear enough of Pertile or Schipa, two master-singers of our day.

We were very amused by the contest between sweet and swing music from London. The Negro Spirituals were very good. The Pellegatti-Ore combination was  show. The Mills Brothers and Clapham and Dwyer and the Ballyhoolligans were refreshing during lunch time. As we write this Z.B.V. is just closing down, the time being 2.15 E.S.T. and we think it time we gave you a little rest. More next week..... Au revoir!

Little boy—"What is 'Swing Music', Daddy?"

Daddy..... (absent-mindedly)..... What they play when they take a bloke to a lynching party!

Defendant pleaded guilty but stated that the car belonged to his friend who allowed him to drive it under the impression that he had a license. Defendant said he did have a license but it had not been renewed.

His Worship fined defendant $10.

CHINESE SUCCESSES ARE REPORTED IN SHANSI

FANGLINTU RECAPTURED IN ADVANCE ON PUCHOW

Japanese Driven Back

Loyang, April 3.
Chinese successes in north and south Shansi were reported today, as the Japanese were in retreat in both sectors.
Fenglin, strategic point on the terminus of the Tatung-Puchow Railway, was recaptured by Chinese forces, which are now advancing northward to attack Puchow. A squadron of Chinese bombers, supporting the offensive, subjected the enemy position to severe raids.
The offensive was begun yesterday following the crossing of large numbers of Chinese troops from Tungkuwan on the opposite side of the Yellow River to Fenglin. The arrival of the Chinese reinforcements enabled the troops on the north bank to join the northward thrust.

In north Shansi, Chinese forces at Houchu east of the Yellow River and Pingkuang, northeast of Houchu, are pushing in a southeasterly direction towards the Lu-chien River basin. Defeated troops of the Japanese are retreating towards the east.
Chinese units are attacking Fengcheng south-west of Linfen and west of the Tatung-Puchow Railway.

Another Chinese column at Yuanchu in south Shansi on the north bank of the Yellow River is moving eastward and find very little resistance on the way. (International).
The Japanese attacking Tai-chung in south Shansi on the north bank of the Yellow River is moving eastward and find very little resistance on the way. (International).

JAPANESE DRIVEN BACK
Hsuehchow, April 3.

Similarly the enemy north of Linyi were driven back to Tangtou to the north-east, where the Japanese are making a stand.
Other Chinese detachments are attacking Tengkien and Liang-shien on the main line of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway. (International).

LERIDA ALMOST ENCOMPASSED

Saragossa, April 3.
Nationalist troops, under the command of General Yague, succeeded in almost completely encircling Lerida on Saturday afternoon, according to despatches received here, and a Moroccan corps has already occupied the suburbs of the town.
On the southern bank of the Ebro, Nationalist troops, after the capture of Gandesa, are advancing in a southerly direction. (Transocean).

JAPANESE HOOLIGANISM IN SHANGHAI

British Subject Severely Mauled And Assaulted

Shanghai, April 2.
Adding to the long list of nerve-wrecking incidents in Shanghai involving Japanese and foreigners, a British subject, C. J. dos Remedios, is reported to have been severely mauled by two Japanese civilians this morning inside the Japanese controlled section of the International Settlement.

The Japanese are alleged to have been drunk. According to eye-witnesses, Remedios, accompanied by another British subject, W. M. Monk, was sitting in a car parked near the Dixwell Road Police Station when the Japanese approached the car, opened the door, and after kicking the machine, hauled Remedios onto the pavement and while one of them bit him on the hand the other started mauling him, ripping off his clothing and punching him about the body.

After the attack the Japanese walked away and Remedios was taken to the hospital for treatment, returning to his home later. The British Consul-General is investigating the incident, sending a protest to be lodged with the Japanese authorities.
Meanwhile both the Japanese involved in the incident are being held for questioning at the Japanese Consulate Police Headquarters on the complaint, charging them with assault and battery filed against them by Remedios. (Reuter).

NEW JAPANESE RAILWAY

TUNGCHOW-KUPEIKOW LINE OPENED

Peiping, April 3.
The railway between Tungchow, twelve miles east of Peiping, and Kupeikow, on the Jehol border, the first Japanese enterprise since the occupation of North China, was officially opened today.

A further section of the railway between Kupeikow and Jehol City is still under construction. The irregulars have now included the Pingui Railway in their zone of operations. Travellers from Kalgan report much irregular activity between Nankow Pass and Fuanhua, necessitating a dozen of armed Japanese guards to each coach on passenger trains. (Reuter).

IRREGULARS SURRENDER

Hsuehchow, April 3.
Another unit of 200 Japanese-employed irregulars operating in Shantung has surrendered to the Chinese side. (Central News).

Britain Recognises Union Of Germany And Austria

Berlin, April 3.
Two notes were handed to Herr Joachim von Ribbentrop, Foreign Minister, by Sir Neville Henderson, British Ambassador, yesterday.

The first officially recognises the union of Austria and Germany and states that it is intended to establish a consulate-general in Vienna about the middle of April with Mr. D. St. Gainer, British Consul-General at Munich, in charge.

The second note informs the German Government that the British Government reserves its attitude towards questions relating to treaties and other matters arising out of the changed status of Austria. (Transocean).

RICKETT BUYS PETROLEUM

MEXICO SENSATION

Mexico City, April 2.
Mr. F. W. Rickett, who caused a sensation by negotiating an oil concession in Abyssinia before the Italian conquest, declared here today that he will probably buy 20,000,000 barrels of petroleum from the Mexican Government, though he did not state for what interests he will buy.

Foreign oil circles doubt whether Mr. Rickett has made a serious business proposition. He has now left for New York.

RAPID SOLUTION.
In Washington today, the United States Secretary of State, Mr. Cordell Hull, issued a statement expressing the belief that a satisfactory and rapid solution of the oil controversy can be found.

Circles close to President Roosevelt states that the United States will not press exaggerated claims.

NOTE TO U.S.
President Cardenas of Mexico has expressed the opinion that a quick solution is in prospect.

He has sent a note to the United States stating that Mexico will honour her obligations though he does not state how much Mexico is willing to pay for the expropriated property.

The note adds that the Roosevelt Administration "has won the esteem of the Mexican people." (Reuter).

NO AGREEMENT

New York, April 3.
Mr. F. W. Rickett, interviewed by Reuter, said that he and his associate, Mr. E. E. Smith, have not yet entered into an agreement with the Mexican Government and discussions which have taken place will be continued in Mexico City in the course of the week. He had hope for a satisfactory outcome. (Reuter).

BIG VICTORY FOR CHINESE

EIGHT DAYS OF FIGHTING

Hankow, April 2.
After eight days and nights of continuous fighting, in which both the Chinese and Japanese troops suffered heavily, the Chinese are reported to have gained command of the situation at Talerchwang, a strategic city on the north bank of the Grand Canal.

After a furious counter-attack, according to a Chinese military communique, the Chinese forces finally succeeded yesterday in dislodging the Japanese troops holding out in northern Talerchwang. Bitter hand-to-hand fighting preceded the ejection of the Japanese troops, with the Chinese relying on bayonets, their blis swords and hand grenades.

Flushed with victory, the Chinese forces are reported to be advancing northward along the railway in the direction of Tsaochwang, in order to form a junction with the forces operating east of Tsaochwang. Japanese troops at Yihien launched an attack yesterday on the Chinese positions about 15 kilometres east of Yihien, but were repulsed according to a Chinese communique. (Reuter).

"COMFORT" DELEGATION

Hankow, April 3.
The decision that a delegation be sent to the front to "comfort" the Chinese defenders was reached yesterday during the last meeting of the Emergency National Kuomintang Congress. (Central News).

Naval Clause Invocation

AROUSES JAPAN'S INDIGNATION

Tokyo, April 2.
British and American invocation of the escalator clause of the London Naval Treaty has aroused intense indignation in Japan.

Japanese Government circles declare they cannot understand the reason advanced for adoption of this policy.

It is further stated that Japan will feel herself obliged to take counter-measures if American tonnage and calibre is increased beyond what is required by purely defensive necessities.

Japan reserves full freedom of action within the scope of the requirements of safety and national defence, it is declared. (Transocean).

RESERVE MEMBERS OF THE KUOMINTANG

Decision To Abolish System

Hankow, April 3.
The National Kuomintang Congress before adjourning on Friday decided to abolish the system of Reserve Members and created instead a system of Kuomintang Youth Members. Formerly applicants for membership were required to go through a period of probation and during this period they were known as Reserve Members.

Youth members have been created with the object of teaching the younger generation Kuomintang principles. The Congress also decided on the creation of a Peoples Political Council to give the people the opportunity to participate in a constitutional Government.

THREE PEOPLES' PRINCIPLES
The Congress also adopted plans for the guidance of the Kuomintang Government in its foreign policy, domestic affairs and economic problems and the most important of these is the resolution that the San Min Chui, or the Three Peoples' Principles shall be the highest guiding principles for national thought.

It is explained that this should dispel all speculations concerning the possibility of communism controlling the Government. The Congress also decided that hereafter the people shall have absolute freedom of speech in press meetings and forming associations so long as such activities do not interfere with China's war resistance. (Reuter).

NATIONALIST PROGRAMME FOR SPAIN

Paris, April 3.
The main points in the programme which the Nationalist aim to inaugurate in Spain, as outlined in a broadcast by the Nationalist Minister for the Interior, Senor Sener, state reports from Seville, are, firstly to tear down and replace the old structure of state by an authoritarian regime of Nationalist inspiration, secondly, to bring different social classes to harmony, and thirdly, to remedy economically the errors of capitalism.
"The Nationalist Government will enforce Christian principles with results already seen in civil legislation," stated Senor Sener. (Reuter).

LADIES' HOCKEY

Champions v. Rest Games End Season

The two Champions v. the Rest Ladies' hockey matches played on Saturday produced some good play and an upset, when Central British Schoolgirls "A," winners of the Brawn Cup League, were beaten by the odd goal in five by the Junior "Rest" XI.

"Y" Ladies, Caer Clark, Cup Champions, however, had most of the play in their match against the Senior "Rest" Team, and might be said to have been unlucky in having to be content with a one-all draw.

LEAGUE FOOTBALL

South China "Bs" Record Gone

MIDDLESEX WIN BY ODD GOAL IN THREE

The Middlesex Regiment Football Eleven gave a rude shock to supporters of South China Athletic Association on Saturday when, playing with ten men for 63 minutes of their First Division league match against South China "B" they won after a hard fight by the odd goal in three.

It was entirely the fine defence of the military side that gained the victory for them. They were ever a thorn in the side of the Chinese forwards, and their first-time tackling was more than the losers' attack could cope with.

South China "B" thus lose their unbeaten record, and, on the run of play in this match, Middlesex fully deserve the honour of being the first team to lower their colours this year.

Teams:—
South China "A"—Tam Kwan-lan; Tay Quee-leang, Lau Mau Leung In-on, Lim Tak-po, Tse Kam-hing, Yeung Shui-yick, Yeuk Hon-woo, Chan Tak-fai, Lau Chung-sang, and Lee She-yau.

Middlesex:—Hartley, Watson, Sheehan, Freshwater, Bright, Wilkinson, Grogan, Courtney, Pearson, Saw and Britton.

BETTER VALUE THAN EVER

The Gillette No. 7 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use. The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 7 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

EXAMINATIONS UNPOPULAR

WAH YAN COLLEGE DEBATE

An interesting debate took place in Wah Yan College on Saturday when the motion was discussed: "That We Disapprove of Examinations as a Factor in Education." From the first, it was clear that the feeling of the meeting was definitely against examinations. Most of the speakers spoke against them. The obvious disadvantages of examinations were catalogued and elaborated. On the other side, however, it was urged that examinations are beneficial in three ways, socially, pedagogically and for the individual student.

The speakers against examinations were:—Li Hor Chung (Lead), Chan Kwan Po, Chow Pak Hang, Yu Shuk Siu, Tseng Yuan Chung, Yu Ping Tsung, for examinations. Chow Hok Kei, Chao Wing Ip, Lee Tack Cheung, Chiu Chung Lun, Yu Kwai Ko, Chung Tsun Tin. On a vote being taken, the examinations system was defeated by two votes.

RAIDERS OVER CANTON

Canton, April 2.
The roar of Japanese aircraft and the bark of anti-aircraft guns reminded the British Ambassador to China, Sir Archibald Kerr Clark Kerr, of the proximity of war to Canton this morning.

Six Japanese planes swept Tover Sachuen at 9 a.m. and anti-aircraft guns, although they did not register any hits, broke up the formation. The planes scattered, and headed in a northern direction. (Reuters).

SILVER MARKET RELAPE

London, April 1.
After recent steadiness, silver suffered a sharp relapse this afternoon, and business was down to a farthing under today's fixed prices.

The weakness is attributed to the refusal of the United States Treasury to accept silver offered it at today's fixed price, and subsequently even at an eighth under that price. (Reuters).

Leading Soviet Women Shot

WIVES OF PROMINENT RUSSIANS

Moscow, April 3.
According to reliable information, the wives of 11 personages who have played prominent parts in the political life of the Soviet Union have been executed for alleged espionage.

Among the unfortunate women who have been shot were the wives of Marshal Jegeroff, Marshal Budjony, Commissar of Foreign Trade Rosengolz, former People's Commissar for Education Bubnoff, army commander Kork, who was himself shot in June 1937, and the People's Commissar of Trade, Weizer.

The wives of Marshals Jegeroff and Budjony, and Commissar Rosengolz were members of well-known families in the former Russian nobility. (Transocean).

BANKRUPTCY CASES

The public examinations of Lal Po-ching, and Leung Tat-ming, the latter a partner of the Nam Wah Cheung Kee Firm, were closed at the Bankruptcy Sessions before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor.

Lal Po-ching, under oath, stated that he was employed in a curio firm which once belonged to his father, whose interest he acquired when his father died in 1934. The following year petitioner bought out the three partners in the firm.

As he had no money he gave them promissory notes.

Petitioner's liabilities amounted to over $3,000 and assets were over $100. His employers had agreed to deduct $20 every month from his salary to discharge his debts.

Leung Tat-ming said that he had a $1,000 share in the Nam Wah Cheung Kee Firm in which there were three other shareholders.

The firm started to lose business from February last, owing to the unrest in China and the difficulty experienced in transporting ginger, the commodity in which the firm dealt.

Liabilities amounted to about $14,000 and the assets were about $3,000.

Get rid of Disfiguring Blemishes this Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

JAPANESE REPLY TO BRITISH PROTEST

Unfriendly And Prejudiced Attitude Alleged

Shanghai, April 4. Accusing the British commander-in-chief, Brigadier-General A. P. D. Telfer-Smollett, of being "discourteous, prejudiced and unfriendly," the Japanese military, according to the spokesman today, replied yesterday rejecting the British protest regarding the Heslop Incident.

The incident occurred when Major Heslop, commanding the Durham Light Infantry, was threatened by a Japanese officer in mufti with a revolver.

The spokesman declared the Japanese reply, in effect, states that the British note was a "one-sided, personal observation in asserting that the individual in civilian clothes was a military man," whereas the Japanese declare that no Japanese soldier was involved.

As a result, the Japanese note, according to the spokesman, states that the Japanese military "deeply regret the discourteous attitude of the British commander-in-chief who addressed the note to the Japanese commander-in-chief."

NOT FRIENDLY

The note continues, according to the spokesman, by rejecting the British protest as being "personal, unfriendly and prejudiced," adding "under the circumstances, the action taken by the British commander-in-chief cannot be regarded as anything but unfriendly."

The note, the spokesman said, concludes by suggesting that the "proper procedure would have been to request investigation of the incident before making any such protest."

REPLY DEMANDED

Some mystery surrounds the spokesman's announcement, however, since he asserts that the Japanese reply was sent yesterday, while Brigadier-General Telfer-Smollett told Reuters this morning that he had not received any reply yet.

He added he was continuing to send an officer daily to the Japanese authorities to demand a reply.—(Reuters).

ROYAL SCOTS DEFEATED

South China "A" Win At Sookunpoo

SENIOR LEAGUE ENCOUNTER

On the Sookunpoo ground yesterday afternoon, South China "A" defeated the Royal Scots by five goals to three in a Senior League football match. The Chinese were full value for their win but it must be said that the Royal Scots might have done better had they dispensed with dilly-dallying methods.

From the kick-off the Chinese made the best of their opportunities and within ten minutes had scored three goals. Lau Fuk-chuen being responsible for the first two while the third resulted from a splendid solo effort on the part of Fung King-cheong. Shortly after Lai Shu-wing sent in a first-time shot from about 30 yards out the ball just skimming the cross-bar.

Before the interval, the Scotsmen took up the offensive and a goal was scored by Hossack, following a melee, the ball entering in empty net, Chu Shu-hung having left his charge. A few minutes later Lai Shu-wing added South China's fourth goal from a rebound, after Duncan had cleared a shot from Tang Kwong-sang.

The opening stages of the second half saw more even play and Proctor, centre-half of the Royal Scots was prominent with some good clearances but the forwards lacked cohesion and, with the exception of Hossack who worked very hard, were never really dangerous.

GROUND SHOT

Good work by Alsey resulted in McKay, left wing, running in and scoring with a first time ground shot that gave Chu no chance.

With the score now 4-2 in favour of the Chinese, play was confined to midfield for a while. Then the Scots once again took up the offensive but were repulsed by Mak Shu-hon and Lee Tin-sang time and again.

Receiving the ball in midfield, Fung King-cheong sent Cheung away on the right, and the latter centred to Lai who slipped the ball to Fung who in turn netted the fifth goal.

In the closing minutes, Cossick did magnificent work and his efforts were rewarded when he sent across a splendid pass which McKay accepted to score the Scots' second goal.

The Royal Scots were pressing when the final whistle was blown. The teams were:

ROYAL SCOTS:—Duncan; Mitchell, J. Fraser; W. Fraser, Proctor, Brown; Milroy, Alsey, Hossack, Gordon, McKay.

SOUTH CHINA "A":—Chu Shu-hung; Mak Shu-hon, Lee Ting-sang; Leung Wing-chiu, Lau Hing-choi, Lau Tin-sang; Tang Kwong-sang, Lai Shu-wing, Fung King-cheong, Lau Fuk-chuen, Cheung Moon-wing.

20-TON MIRROR

World's Strongest "Eye" Nears Completion

A 20-ton glass "eye" which will magnify man's power to explore the heavens beyond all present limits, is nearing completion in Pasadena, California.

It is the 200-inch reflecting mirror for the world's largest telescope at the Mount Wilson Observatory, Pasadena.

After taking almost a year to cool, this gigantic piece of glass was brought to Pasadena by special train from Corning, New York, two years ago.

Since then the process of polishing it has been going steadily on, and nearly four tons of glass have been removed by heavy grinding on its reflector.

Now optical experts of the California Institute of Technology have disclosed that their work on the "eye" will be completed six months or a year ahead of expectations, thus rendering the mirror ready for use in 1939.

PENANG MUST ADVERTISE

Very Attractive To Tourists

Mr. Douglas Krauss, a pioneer motorist who has motored all over the world, and been a regular contributor to the "Autocar" and other motoring magazines, speaking at the annual meeting of the Automobile Association of Malaya (Penang branch) urged the need for advertising Penang which he maintained, had everything to attract the tourist.

He said that about a month ago he was seated in a park in London with his wife and a very good scout. He asked his wife what they were going to do as they did not have a car. His wife replied "Let us go back to Penang."

His friend said that the place was full of trees, tigers, crocodiles and swamps. That was the picture. Mr. Krauss said, that an average Englishman had of that country.

"The more you go round this world, the more you will find that we, as a nation are not boasting our own country," Mr. Krauss said.

Continuing, the speaker referred to the meeting to Honolulu. "That place has no advantages over Penang as an island and yet it is absolutely packed up every year with people, motorists and tourists."

Chinese banks in Shanghai will shortly call plenary meetings of their shareholders to hear the reports for the past year and to discuss their business policies this year, says a message to the Sin Wen Pao.

NOT FOR TRANSFER!

MANCHESTER BIDS FOR CLIFTON

Chesterfield, out of the cup, and just too far away from the Second Division leaders to be in the promotion hunt, have a £10,000 player in their ranks, writes a Home correspondent. The player is Harry Clifton, the inside-right and leading goal-scorer in the team.

The does not mean that Chesterfield would transfer the young fellow from the north-east even if they were offered five figures. But the Chesterfield directors, who ought to know, put the player's value at £10,000.

Latest Offer

The latest offer made for Harry Clifton's transfer made no impression on the Chesterfield board or on the manager, Mr. Bill Harvey. The figure was £8,000. This represents big business by any club. Chesterfield remained unmoved.

They must think a lot of this player at Saltergate. See how the offers have risen.

When Harry was just on the fringe of the first team Leeds United were very keen. The United thought they were doing something when they put up an offer of £15,000. Nothing doing. Next thing I heard was that the figure had risen to £35,000. Harry still stayed at Chesterfield.

Earlier this season the bidding rose to £6,000. Now £8,000!

The latest offer was made by Manchester United. Last week I mentioned the United's efforts to sign a Barnsley forward. It was while that deal was pending that the United made their Chesterfield effort.

A Manchester Contrast. This certainly bears out all that I wrote about the Old Trafford club's determination to have First Division football next season.

After spending over £6,000 on a centre-forward most clubs would rest. Not Manchester United. Jack Smith, from Newcastle United, has revitalised the Old Trafford attack. Now the feeling is that a top-class inside-forward is needed to co-operate with a top-class centre-forward.

Have you noticed the contrast in Manchester? United have spent more to win promotion. City have spent money and will spend more, to avoid relegation.

What chance the clubs passing each other on the way?

New Zealand's Centennial

Exhibition In 1940

Wellington, N.Z. In 1940 New Zealand will celebrate her hundredth anniversary as a member of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

Among the celebrations will be a huge exhibition, and already plans have been drawn for the buildings to house the exhibits which a number of other parts of the Empire, as well as foreign countries, have decided to send.

An area of 60 acres has been levelled for the site, and some 14 acres of this will be taken up by the main buildings. Already the goal of £150,000 (£800,000) to be subscribed by the public has been almost reached, while in addition Government grants and a non-interest-bearing loan will bring the total capital to £225,000 (£900,000).

SITE CHOSEN

The site chosen is at the capital city, Wellington, right alongside the municipal airport.

A large number of committees is investigating both the historic and the modern aspects which the exhibition is designed to display. It will be open from about November, 1939, until, probably, March or April, 1940.

While 29th January, 1940, has hitherto always been assumed to be the date of Captain Hobson's proclamation of the "establishment of the Colony," recent investigation goes to show that the 30th is the correct date, and it is expected that this latter date will be the one for the main celebrations in 1940.

FALSE PRETENCES Charged with obtaining two pairs of shoes and one pair of boots under false pretences, Ho Hek-sau, 32, was bound over at the Central Magistracy yesterday when he appeared before Mr. H. R. Butters.

Complainant in the case was Mrs. English, of the Murray Barracks.
